(b) if so, whether Government would remain a mere spectator when an increasing number of companies are clandestinely robbing such investors by declaring themselves as "bankrupt";

(c) whether the Escorts Finance Company is one of these and have not paid maturity or interest amount since 2005; and

(d) whether Government would act swiftly in such cases to regain public confidence?

THE MINISTER OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS (SHRI PREM CHAND GUPTA): (a) The slogan "save for a secure future—invest with prudence" is in the nature of a general advice to the investors as part of the 'Investor Education' campaign.

(b) No,"Sir. The Ministry has been taking action as per the statute against such companies. The process of law takes its own course. The Ministry has also taken various pre-emptive measures for investor education and launched following three websites in this direction:

(i) www.iepf.gov.in, which provides free information on various topics of financial literacy;

(ii) www.watchoutinvestors.com, which provides free information in respect of persons and entities which have been indicted by various regulators for economic offences;

(iii) www.investorhelpline.in, which provides free service to investors to lodge their complaints through internet and then follows up with the concerned entities till its final redressal.

(c) Escorts Finance Limited (the company) has been delaying/defaulting in repayment of matured deposits since October, 2005 due to liquidity constraints. Subsequently, it had filed a petition before the Delhi High Court on March 2,2006 under Section 391 of the Companies Act, 1956 seeking approval for the Scheme of Arrangement and Compromise between flagship company Escorts Limited, Escorts Finance Limited and of its deposit holders & Secured creditors. As per information from RBI, Prohibitory Orders have been issued on July 31, 2006 under Sections 45MB(1) and 45MB(2) of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 prohibiting the company from accepting fresh desposits and alienating its assets. Further, as per orders of the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, a Committee has been formed to look into the claims/grievances of depositors of the said company. This Committee will be assisted by the Vice President of M/s Escorts Finance Limited.

(d) Yes, Sir. The Ministry of Corporate Affairs takes requisite steps as per the provisions contained in the Companies Act, 1956.

Declaration of Telugu as a Classical Language

19. SHRI M.V. MYSURA REDDY: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the representations to declare Telugu as a Classical Language were forwarded to Sahitya Akademy;

(b) if so, whether it is also a fact that the Akademy has not taken any action for completion of objective criteria for including Telugu as a Classical language;

(c) if so, the reasons therefor; and

(d) whether Government will fix a time-frame for completion of objective criteria for inclusion of Telugu as a Classical Language?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) A Committee of Linguistic Experts has been set up to consider these representations. The proposal has to be studied by experts in detail.

(d) As the whole process is eleborate, no deadline can be fixed for this purpose.

Revival of the Nalanda University

20. KUMARI NIRMALA DESHPANDE: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal to revive the past glory of the ancient Nalanda University;

(b) if so, what are the plans to encourage the Buddhist Scholars, both Sanskrit and Pali; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) The Magadh Institute of Post Graduate Studies and Research in Pali and Allied Languages and Buddhist Learning was established by the State Government at Nalanda in 1951 with a view to revive heritage of ancient Nalanda. The Institute was subsequently renamed as "Nava Nalanda Mahavihara" and taken over by the Ministry of Culture, Government of India, in 1994. The Mahavihara has been granted Deemed University status by the Ministry of Human Resource Development.

(b) and (c) The Nava Nalanda Mahavihara not only encourages Buddhist studies in Sanskrit and Pali but also studies related to Buddhist philosophy, ancient history, culture and archaeology and Tibetian studies, etc.
